I Resolve To:

2. Not use my cell phone behind the wheel.
3. Never drink and drive or drive drowsy.
4. Yield to pedestrians and bicyclists.
5. Drive the speed limit.
6. Wear a helmet when riding a motorcycle.
7. Model good behavior when driving children around.
8. Always use a proper car seat.
9. Stop at red lights.
10. Maintain my vehicle and tires.

✧ Happy New Year! ✧

TOP 5 NEW YEAR'S AUTOMOTIVE RESOLUTIONS

1. Resolve to schedule two checkups this year with your mechanic and know your maintenance history.

Regardless of how well you think you know your vehicle, a well-trained and trustworthy mechanic can spot things ahead of time that you might miss.

2. Resolve to keep up with fluid changes. Checking on your vehicle's fluids is a paramount to its longevity.

3. Resolve to address minor problems early. It's easy to hear a strange noise in your vehicle and hope that it will go away. Unfortunately, there aren't any cars out there that can heal themselves, at least not yet.

4. Resolve to keep your car clean. Excess dirt and grime can act like sand paper, creating unnecessary abrasion that can wear down upholstery and carpeting.

5. Resolve to check your tires and wheels. If your tires have worn unevenly or your wheels are unbalanced, vibration can cause excess stress on suspension components.
